

FELLINIANA STEP INTO HISTORY. BECOME PART OF IT.

Felliniana was created to celebrate and preserve the legacy of Federico Fellini, one of the greatest Masters in the history of cinema, through an international project bringing together photography, art, publishing, cinema, music, and major cultural events.

A limited number of entrepreneurs will be invited to join the project as Honorary Patrons of Felliniana.

This is an opportunity to associate your name with a project dedicated to the great Italian filmmaker, connect with the international world of culture and, above all, own an original collectible photograph from the Franco Pinna Archive, the historic photographer on Federico Fellini's sets.

HONORARY PATRON

Investment $10,000

The participation includes:

- 60 × 40 cm fine art photograph, produced from an original negative by Franco Pinna on the set of Federico Fellini. Limited and numbered edition, authenticated on the reverse by the Franco Pinna Archive. Printed on premium photographic paper consistent with that used during the period, using professional archival materials designed to preserve the work over time.
- Official Certificate of Honorary Patron of Felliniana.
- A personal page in the official Felliniana volume, featuring a brief profile of the entrepreneur, their company, and their personal vision of culture and beauty. The Felliniana editorial team will work with you to develop the content.
- A personal interview in The Art Insider, the established American publication dedicated to Art and Business, focusing on the entrepreneur's journey, vision, and relationship with art and culture.
- Presence in Felliniana's official communications dedicated to its Honorary Patrons.

- Association of your name with the Felliniana project across the editorial, cultural, and communication activities planned as part of the project.
- Invitations to official Felliniana events reserved for Honorary Patrons, subject to the schedule and availability of each individual event.

ELITE HONORARY PATRON

Investment $10,000 + $ 18,000

Becoming an Elite Honorary Patron includes:

- All benefits reserved for Honorary Patrons.
- Personal audiovisual participation, through an approximately 30-second contribution or interview that will become part of Felliniana's official video production and may be incorporated into content connected with the event at the GRAMMY Museum.
- An introductory text in the Felliniana volume signed by the entrepreneur, separate from the personal page and dedicated to their vision of the relationship between business, culture, beauty, and artistic heritage.
- Enhanced editorial prominence within the project and in materials dedicated to Elite Honorary Patrons.
- Enhanced presence in Felliniana's institutional and digital communications, highlighting the entrepreneur's role within the project.
- An individual audiovisual feature derived from the interview, which may also be used in corporate communications and on the entrepreneur's own channels, according to formats and terms agreed with the production.
- Recognition in the institutional credits dedicated to Elite Honorary Patrons, in materials and productions where this section is included.

- Priority invitations to Felliniana events and private engagements, subject to capacity, accreditation requirements, and the specific conditions of each venue.
- The right to officially use the title Elite Honorary Patron of Felliniana in corporate and institutional communications, in accordance with the project's guidelines.

TOTAL INVESTMENT

€28,000

€10,000 Honorary Patron + €18,000 Elite Upgrade

Felliniana offers the opportunity to enter a world rarely accessible through traditional corporate communication, the world of international culture, associating your name with the legacy of Federico Fellini while becoming the owner of a rare collectible directly connected to his history.

An artwork to own. A project to support. A name that will endure.
